

The Occupational Health & Safety New Product of the Year Award honors the outstanding product development achievements of health and safety manufacturers whose products are considered particularly noteworthy in their ability to improve workplace safety.

Winner Benefits

Winners in each category receive great publicity, including:

- recognition at the NSC 2010 Expo
- use of Occupational Health & Safety 2010 New Product of the Year logo for one year on all ads and marketing materials
- recognition in Occupational Health & Safety marketing and promotions
- editorial coverage in the December 2010 issue of Occupational Health & Safety magazine

Eligibility

1. Product must be new to the market August 2, 2009 - July 2, 2010.
2. Entries must be postmarked by July 2, 2010 and received by July 9, 2010 to be considered.
3. A company may submit more than one product, but the same product cannot be entered in more than one category. A separate entry form must be completed for each entry. A separate entry fee is charged for each entry.
4. All entry form questions must be completed.

Judging

All entries for the Occupational Health & Safety 2010 New Product of the Year Award must be postmarked by July 2, 2010. Judging will begin after this time, and the winners will be announced at the NSC 2010 Expo, which will be October 4-6 in San Diego, California.

A panel of judges selected from the health and safety industry by the editorial staff of Occupational Health & Safety magazine will review the submitted materials to determine the winners. Awards will be given at the discretion of the judges, and judges have the sole right to determine eligibility. Incomplete or incorrect entries will be rejected. All decisions are final. To ensure fairness, judge names will be kept confidential until the awards are announced.
